How to read this

Every frame carries a VIDEO-ABSOLUTE time -- seconds from the start of the video at the URL above, NOT seconds from the start of the bout -- printed as text directly above it. Those times run from 2:50:55 to 3:00:35.

Return every timestamp in that same video-absolute clock. If the bout starts partway into the video, say where it starts as a separate field -- do not rebase the event times to it. A bout-relative time reported as an absolute one places the whole fight in a different part of the broadcast, and the result looks plausible while being wrong.

THE CAPTION TEXT BESIDE EACH FRAME IS A GUIDE, NOT GROUND TRUTH. It is an auto-caption of live commentary: the commentator misnames athletes, talks about one bout while another is on screen, anticipates and speculates, and the text lags the picture. When the caption and the frame disagree, THE FRAME WINS. Use the caption to orient where to look and to break a tie on a label -- never to record an event you did not see in the frame itself.

For each event you can see, give:

<code>ts</code>	integer seconds, video-absolute
<code>label</code>	a technique name, taken verbatim from the label list
<code>actor</code>	which competitor did it, by name
<code>successful</code>	true if it landed, false if attempted and stopped
<code>type</code>	one of: control, submission, guard, takedown, pass, transition, sweep, escape
<code>points</code>	points the scoreboard awarded for THIS action; omit if you cannot read it

Points are the one thing the scoreboard is authoritative for, and reading footage is the first time they are visible at all -- a transcript only ever carried what a commentator said aloud. So: report `points` only when you can actually read the number change on the scoreboard between frames, attribute it to the action that caused it, and OMIT the field otherwise. Never write 0 to mean 'I could not tell' -- an action that scored nothing and an action nobody could score are different facts, and only an absent field holds the second. If the score jumps and you cannot see which action earned it, say so in `note` on the nearest event rather than guessing an attribution.

Also return, once per bout: the two competitors' names, the event/card name, the year, who won and how, `bout_start_seconds` -- the video-absolute second the bout begins -- and `final_score` as "a-b" if the scoreboard shows one. If this video contains more than one bout, return one such object per bout.

LABELS ARE A CLOSED VOCABULARY. Take each `label` verbatim from `node_library.json`, which lists every technique the library knows, most-used first. A label is normalised into a node key, and that key IS the node in every graph it reaches -- so a spelling the library does not have does not fail, it mints a second node, and one technique arrives split in two with no error anywhere. Where two listed names could both fit, take the one printed higher: that ordering is how often the corpus already uses it. If a frame genuinely shows something the list does not cover, use your own words and flag it as `new_label: true` rather than bending it into the nearest listed name.

NOT EVERY FRAME IS LIVE ACTION. A broadcast cuts to slow-motion replays, usually right after a finish or a scoring exchange, and a replay looks exactly like the thing it replays. Read one as new action and the same event is recorded twice, seconds apart, which downstream reads as a repeated technique rather than one shown twice. Tells: a graphics bug or logo appears, the clock stops or disappears, the camera angle changes, the action repeats something you already saw. Skip those frames rather than logging them, and say in the note which range you treated as replay.

AND NOT EVERY FRAME IS THIS BOUT. A broadcast cuts away -- to another mat, to a different match's scorecard, to a crowd shot or an ad -- and it may show two bouts in sequence with a gap between rounds. A reader found exactly that in this batch: a scorecard from an unrelated match sitting in the middle of the sampled frames. Events read off a cutaway land on the wrong athletes entirely, which is worse than missing them. Before logging any event, confirm the frame shows the two competitors you identified, and say in the note which ranges you excluded as not-this-bout.

THE SCOREBOARD'S NAME ORDER IS NOT A MAT POSITION. A lower-third graphic puts one name left and one right by broadcast convention; which competitor stands where on the mat is unrelated and changes shot to shot. Binding a name to a body through that order is the single highest-cost error available here, because `actor` is on every event -- get it backwards and the whole answer inverts at once, while still looking internally consistent. Bind identity to something carried ON the athlete instead: a name printed on the back of the rashguard, kit colour, sleeve length, an ankle band, hair. Then check that discriminator against a frame where the scoreboard and the bodies are visible together, and say in `identity_verified_by` which frame did it.

REPORT ONLY WHAT YOU ARE CONFIDENT OF -- but report uncertainty by getting COARSER, not by staying silent and not by guessing. If the frames show that something happened and you cannot tell exactly which technique it was, use the generic label the library already carries -- `Guard Pass` rather than a named pass, `Takedown` rather than a named entry, `Submission` rather than a named finish, and likewise `Sweep`, `Escape`, `Guard`. A generic label is the honest answer at the resolution these frames give you; a specific one you inferred is a claim about a technique nobody saw, and once it is in the athlete's graph nothing downstream can tell it from an observed one.

This matters most across the sampling gap. At one frame every 20s a technique can start and finish between two samples, leaving only its result visible -- a competitor who was on top now now underneath, a grip that is now a finish. Recording that result generically is correct. Naming the entry you did not see is not, however obvious it feels. The same rule covers `actor`: if you cannot tell which competitor did it, say so in `note` rather than picking one, because a right technique on the wrong athlete is two errors.

The result line at the top, when there is one, comes from the athlete's BJJ Heroes record. It is there so you can tell the two competitors apart and know the bout ended -- it is NOT evidence of anything you cannot see. Do not report a finish, a technique or a score because that line names it: an armbar listed as the method and an armbar visible in the frames are two different claims, and only the second belongs in your answer.

Only report what a frame actually shows. The scoreboard settles POINTS and nothing else: a technique you infer from a score change but never see is worth less than an omission, because a wrong label propagates into the athlete's graph and their rating and nothing downstream can tell it from an observed one. An omission is recoverable; an invented event is not.

2:50:55 (10255s)

lock, you know. Then you have to go under. I remember when I was fighting Lucas Hook on BJJ bat and then Homin was on my corner and then Hook got my back and then I choke me and then I got out.

Gave him a hard time, you know. But the way you escape from the bar to you need to come to the side. You have the hook. And then under, you know, you need to put his left leg inside your legs. You know, you see that charge has the left leg outside. That side, he he can get like a kind of foot lock. Uhhuh.

2:51:35 (10295s)

But if he's inside, you can get out, you know. If he stays like this, he's really safe. Okay. He's trying to do the face rear naked choke. One, two. Oh, that's a T. That's a that he's got it.

Congratulations, Charles. You deserve it. You deserve. You are a monster. Charles came here to get his passport to Las Vegas later this year. And he did it. Just got his visa to go to the United States.

2:52:15 (10335s)

All right. How good how good does that feel? What a running. What a running, man. He just beat all in one day. Many more. I think he had six five or six fights, man. Five or six fights today. Congratulations fights.

2:52:35 (10355s)

Got the job done. Here's a champ, ladies and gentlemen. Here. On the next pause, we keep the talk. Okay. I think this is a nice talk. Who you picking? My timer. Okay. I pick Luis Paulo. I like him.

2:52:55 (10375s)

Everybody likes Lisa. He's good guy. And Derek, they're good fighters. You have You got to pick Jefferson. Jefferson. Hey, but Jefferson is very tough, man. He just beat. He beat was power. reality reality is that you don't make you don't make it to ADCC final if you're not tough as nails. That's the reality right there with this. I agree, Marcel. Okay.

2:53:15 (10395s)

You cannot just coast through the tournament and get to the finals of any ADCC event nowadays of any jiu-jitsu event, right? It's so tough as as we said before, you know, you need to start as a kid and then keep going because now business.

2:53:35 (10415s)

Yeah. Okay, we see some action here too. SP is trying to get double under. Oh, nice. He's trying to trying to take down trying to foot sweep him right there. Jefferson's not having any of that. Yeah. And the coach just said, "Let's show him we are wrest we are wrestling champion. Let's see how it goes.

2:53:55 (10435s)

Yeah, they both wrestle. I don't think they respect each other's wrestling. Look at that. It's a good arm drag right there. And I I really like who plays wrestling low, you know, like Luis Power is touching the ground, putting the knee on the ground, you know. I think this is like American style.

2:54:15 (10455s)

I like that. I like that. Oh, low kick. My T low kick. First one for sure. One thing that I really like on ADCC is because I'm a really wrestling enthusiastic. Oh, you're a wrestler?

2:54:35 (10475s)

Yeah. Yeah. I really like Jordan Burroughs. Huh? Double leg killer. He shoots from 2 m and then he gets your leg. Bone is a different story, different kind of human being. Okay, so we have 1 minute and 30 seconds for points and then we have a lot of action already.

2:54:55 (10495s)

Luis Paulo he used to be a Melki Galvon athlete and now he's back at team Alliance. Yeah was Alliance also with them and then and then I think

2:55:15 (10515s)

Fabricu and then Luis Paul and then Brenda they move back to alliance correct. Yeah, I think is you have to get your choice and then deal with them, right? So, for sure milk is okay with them.

2:55:35 (10535s)

They are okay with milk, you know, I don't like fighting and then uh all the negativity. Yeah, as I said before, you know, so yeah, I think it's it's professional. Maybe you you can split with someone like you know, not be together anymore, but you don't need to hate someone know cuz someone did too much for you both sides. Civil uh to each other. I saw them talking uh talking earlier today.

They're at least civil to each other and that's as martial artists. That's uh that's all we can expect that we are civil to each other and we keep it professional. Okay, Marcel, 50 seconds remaining and then we have a lot of action. We have 1 eye poke for everyone. Which one?

2:56:15 (10575s)

Luis Paul had eye poke. Just got eye poked. Yeah. And then Jeff punch eye poke. Now it happens man. It happens. The intensity is so high. you know the tension and you know this is very meaningful to both of these guys. Yeah, I think they are really aggressive but not contendant you know like no contend on the attacks. They just like trying trying trying but they didn't get too close on any position. Okay. Almost. Yeah. And and I don't know that the intensity is going to change that much once they start counting the almost one more. It's been pretty intense so far. Yes. One more I poke.

2:56:35 (10595s)

2:56:55 (10615s)

Sorry. If he gets I poked, he actually uh according to ADCC rules, he has two minutes to recover. If he needs medical attention, if he needs to wait a minute to recover, he is allowed two minutes.

2:57:15 (10635s)

It looks like the table calling the ref. They're going to give them instructions. He's going to talk about the eye poke. Two eye pokes in one minute. You know, next one's going to be a negative for sure. All right. Instructing the fighters. They saying, "Hey, told them what not to do."

2:57:35 (10655s)

No hand. No, no, no hand. Straight to the face." You know, because this can happen. The eye poke, right? Yeah. And that's how it did happen. Yeah. Points. Points are on, points have started.

2:57:55 (10675s)

Okay, we see the tie up. You see the two one with power low. Oh, okay. S leg. Nice guillotine attempt. Let's see how Oh, nice. That points. That points. No points yet. He's 30 going for the back. One hook inside. Marcelo Paulo wastes no time trying to get back control. Nice defense. Try to defend.

2:58:15 (10695s)

Okay for the real nigga choke. Okay. Luis Paulo is your champion. Punches his ticket to Vegas. Very, very, very fast.

2:58:35 (10715s)

Once the point started, they really turned it up. Yeah, they really turned it up. did the single leg missed by the guillotin and then to the guillotin. He did like a down secured top position went for the back and attacked the neck successfully.

2:58:55 (10735s)

Luis Paulo they touch hands. All right. Kawwan Kawwan Gabriel is Melky's star student and I think he's 19 years old. I was there with him. 19. Yeah. I think he's 19 or 18. He's really young, really nice, really work hard too, hard worker.

2:59:15 (10755s)

And got I got to tell you something. I talked to last year when we were uh in S. Paulo for the tri for the trials. Uh Professor Mali Galvong uh looked at me, pointed at uh at Kawwan, who at the time was a brown belt. He said, "That kid is a promise, maybe the promise for next state ECC." And sure enough, he's here in the finals. uh really close to get his ticket punch to uh go to Las Vegas later this year, but I think Kennedy has different plans. Yeah, I think Kennedy wants wants they spot and Kenny fought uh 2019 I think 2022 he didn't fight because he was injured.

2:59:35 (10775s)

2:59:55 (10795s)

So he came all the way from the injury and he's here doing the trials not waiting for the invitation which he could get because he's a he got second place in 2019. kind of attacking the knee right there to force the takedown. Look at all he's doing. Yeah. How interesting. Even though he's trying to take down and then Kawwan is managed to defend well. Yeah.

3:00:15 (10815s)

Kwan is getting more tired there, you know. Now tell me, uh, I feel like he should hand fight more cuz this got to feel awkward, right? Standing in that position having pressure on yourself. Yeah. Shouldn't be hand fight. Shouldn't he be hand fighting a little bit more? Yeah. I think he want to play guard, you know, cuz they everyone knows that.

3:00:35 (10835s)

KJ has a really well well wrestling you know and then Kenji is called [Applause] K is very good on leg attacks leg attacks has a very good guard you know foot lock we see a very tight foot lock
